PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Saturday was a wonderful day for Penn's Woods Painters, We had about eighteen or so come to paint, and I am especially proud because this was a gift from the heart. The end result of a day's painting by these gals, was all the boxes are being donated. Purely a selfless and beautiful act of kindness. Another reason why I love PWP. I was so darn proud of my two pieces I could have danced. So a huge shout out to Carol Henry, and Judy Vetock, for their hard work and professional presentations. The food was fabulous, and Debby Thorpe has volunteered to be our Hospitality chairperson. That will be a treat to our Chapter. Again I am proud to be your President.

PAINT INS

Linda Sutphin will be teaching "Scarves to Dye for" on June 18th. She will be teaching us how to dye silk scarves and then paint a sunflower design by Beth Wagner. The total cost will be $35, which includes the cost of supplies. The supplies will include 2 scarves, dyes, fabric paints and other necessary items. Additional scarves can be purchased for $3.75 each.

The deadline for registration is May 18th.

Looking ahead to our next two Paint-Ins..... Joyce Gutierrez will be teaching "Tulips in a Ball Jar" in August and Fran Huffman in October with "Faux Tiles". It will be a fantastic year of painting. Enjoy!

2016 WAYS AND MEANS

Hello fellow painters, I hope you are all keeping warm. Our artwork is on display at Camp Hill library until the end of February. Thanks to all who brought their pieces for the display. Looking forward to our March meeting we will have a 50/50 drawing and for this meeting there will be a "second chance" drawing for a piece of artwork, so remember to buy your tickets from me at the meeting. Stay warm and safe, see you in March.

MEMORY BOXES

Dottie Shultz delivered five boxes to Pinnacle Health Harrisburg Hospital in January.

We had 17 people attend the annual Memory Box Paint-In on Saturday, February 20, and they painted 39 boxes. We need to continue to build up the inventory of painted boxes again, so if you couldn't attend and would like either of the patterns email me.

I will also bring boxes and hard-copies of the patterns to the March 21 meeting. Thanks to all those who participated in the Paint-In and brought the delicious food to share!! Judy and I had a fun time teaching these patterns, and hope you all enjoyed it. Let's do it again next year.
