FRUIT THE JEAN ZAWICKI WAY

With Betty Lou Zimmerman

Our May 21st program will be taught by Betty Lou Zimmerman. She has received permission from Jean Zawicki to teach her fruit. We will be painting pears, cherries, strawberries, and a few blue

Paints for Fruit:

- Americana
- Antique Gold
- Avocado
- Burnt Sienna
- Cadmium Yellow
- Country Blue
- Deep Midnight Blue
- Evergreen
- Dioxazine Purple
- Lamp Black
- Lemon Yellow
- Napa Red
- Olive Green
- Sapphire
- True Red
- Snow White

Betty Lou will have some paints to share, but it is best to have a light, medium, and dark value for each color of fruit.

grapes. Patterns were distributed at the January meeting. If you have the pattern, you can apply it beforehand. The pattern will be available at the meeting, and you will be given time to apply the pattern. If you want the pattern via email, email Carol Henry @ CLHenry67@aol.com.

We will be using the 3 x 11" "long" pattern, which was on a separate sheet. Bring a surface that this pattern will look nice on. It will fit a long tissue box, tray, recipe box, box, or round tin. Use what you have in your wood/tin stash. You can add or subtract fruit to the pattern to fit your surface. If you have a bigger surface, you can fill in with berries/squishy leaves. If you need a surface, contact Betty Lou @ (717) 258-3024 as she has a stash in the basement that she is willing to sell for a few bucks. She will even basecoat it for you and bring it along.

Bring your surface basecoated with one of the following colors: Americana Antique Teal, Blue Mist, Black Plum, Colonial Green, Dark Chocolate, Dioxazine Purple, Ice Blue, Lamp Black, Light French Blue, Soft Sage, or Warm Neutral. Bring along your basecoat color for touchups. If using tin, sand to remove any shine, spray with a metal primer, and basecoat to cover well.

Bring your normal acrylic painting supplies including smaller brushes. Bring flats/angles, rounds, or filberts up to Size 6 and a good liner. If you need to apply the pattern, bring transfer paper.

Bring your lunch. Drinks and some goodies will be provided by Hospitality.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Once again, you have proven Penn's Woods Painters is the best chapter ever. The recent Beth Wagner seminar was absolutely fabulous. We had a stellar group and the final art works were awesome. Beth is a real people person, so patient with any and all questions. I am very proud of my paintings!

Our board meeting was last week...you will be getting the minutes, but I'd like to share a few highlights. We are purchasing a new camera which will allow us to be in the forefront making our seminars, paint-ins and other programs so much easier to follow.

The May Program presented by Betty Lou Zimmerman will be painting Jean Zawicki fruit on the surface of your choice.

The June Paint-In is fast approaching. Please remember that these beautiful dyed silk scarves were chosen by our members, so if you voted for this Paint-In, be sure to register as soon as possible..

Finally, just a plea for each of us to take the time and reach out to past members, neighbors, friends to join us, sharing our passion for painting. We have some terrific news to share soon regarding an effort to do just that, so stay tuned.

Happy Painting!

Mary Lank

PAINT INS

Wow, I can't believe we are heading into May already. That means our June 18th Paint-In with Linda Sutphin is almost upon us. Linda will be teaching us how to dye and paint silk scarves with a Beth Wagner/Carol Spohn design. This will be a great opportunity to try a new medium. Feel free to contact me with any questions. The registration deadline is May 18th.

On August 20th, Joyce Gutierrez will be teaching Tulips in a Ball Jar. You will provide your own surface and supplies. The registration form is in this newsletter.

MEMORY BOXES

We currently have 84 painted Memory Boxes. Thanks so much for building up our inventory. I will have patterns and boxes at the May meeting. Please varnish your boxes before handing them in. Also, please write "memoryboxes.org" on the bottom of the boxes in permanent marker.

2016 WAYS AND MEANS

Hello fellow painters, Well I think (hope) spring is really finally here. May's meeting will bring two silent auction items, a small box painted by Shara Reiner and a wood tray painted by Prudy Vannier. We will also be having our 50/50 drawing. Thanks for your support of our chapter and hope to see you all at May's meeting.

TREASURE BOXES

Nothing to report. Please continue painting those boxes! For more information regarding this program, check out our website at Pennswoodspainters.wordpress.com

Lois Eckert

Melissa Crowther and DeeDeLorenzo had some great looking projects to share with us.

Our new hospitality chair really has some good refreshments at the March meeting... just ask Dee.

OBSERVING ART OUT AND ABOUT

Checking out the antique stores is a hobby of mine. Recently, while shopping, I came across this piece and thought it might be fun to share with all of you. You have to love the words on this cradle "the Pennsylvania Dutch mind their own Business and Respect that of others." What have you seen? Want to share? Send me a photo. wendybeckmann@verizon.net
